Rev. J. H. Hollingshead preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday morning, although his congregation was few in numbers.

Evangelist James H. Parker left for the north Sunday and expects to return again in the coming fall.

J. B. Vandervent met with a serious accident recently at his home on Long Island, N. Y. As he was fastening an anchor to a row boat he fell, striking in such a way as to break several ribs. He has the sympathy of his many friends here who hope to soon hear of his recovery. Mrs. Vandervent did not take the trip to Paris as was her intention and fortunately is at home to administer to the wants of her husband.

Mrs. W. C. Martin has returned from her two weeks' stay in Ocala and is slowly improving in health, although still very feeble.

Miss Bertha Strunk arrived at home Monday and is just as sweet and vivacious as ever.

An uncle of Harry Fuller, from New York, who is suffering from rheumatism, has come to visit his nephew and to test the virtues of our health-giving piney woods, and we are sure they will be both enjoyable and beneficial to him.

We are sorry to report that "Grandma" Saunders and Mrs. Hamilton are both worse at this writing.

Amy Marsh was united in marriage to William Simmons the evening of the 11th, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh. Although the rain fell in torrents, the house was filled to overflowing with their colored friends and relatives, who brought many pretty and useful presents for the newly wedded pair. The bride was dressed in white mull, with a long white veil, white gloves and slippers, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. There were four bridesmaids in attendance, who were also dressed in white. The pastor from Mt. Olive church tied the knot. Refreshments in abundance, consisting of ice cream and cake, were served, and the wedding in all its details was a credit to our colored population.

1,000,000 WOMEN RELIEVED

Reports received show that Wine of Cardui has brought permanent relief to 1,000,000 suffering women in the last few years. Because of Wine of Cardui, thousands of sufferers, seemingly on the way to premature graves, are now healthy women taking an active interest in the duties of life. Mrs. Mitchell was declining in health when Wine of Cardui "performed a miraculous cure" in her case. She suffered terribly with the agonies of falling of the womb, leucorrhoea and profuse menstruation. The weekly appearance of the menses for two months sapped her vitality until she was little better than a physical wreck. Her nervous system gave way under the terrible pain and aggravation. Then came the trial of Wine of Cardui and the cure. Mrs. Mitchell's experience ought to commend Wine of Cardui to suffering women in words of burning eloquence. The Wine is within the reach of all. Woman who try it are relieved. You can get as much benefit as Mrs. Mitchell received. Ask your druggist for Wine of Cardui. Send to the laboratory for the medicine if he tenders you a substitute.

WINE OF CARDUI

South Gaston, N. C., May 20, 1890.

Wine of Cardui and Tiedford's Black-Draught have performed a miraculous cure in my case. I have been a great sufferer from falling of the womb and leucorrhoea, and my menses came every week for two months and became very painful. I was in a bad condition. My husband induced me to try Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught, and now I have no pain. The leucorrhoea has disappeared and now I am in perfect health. Mrs. WILLIE MITCHELL.

Mr. George Barker had a serious accident Saturday afternoon. While trying to catch his young horse, he was thrown to the ground, dragged a distance and fractured his left leg. He is improving.

A series of services are being held this week by Rev. Coleman, of Ocala. They will continue over Sunday. Mr. Coleman is the guest of Mr. Keeney, an old friend.

A large land deal was consummated this week by C. W. White purchasing 1000 acres of land from Miss Jessie Owens for $12,000. This a fine piece of phosphate and lime land.

Joseph Bumby was in town on census business. Our colored enumerators to have disappeared, with his labors half finished. Some have not seen him at all.

Alton Jones, while riding horseback a few nights ago, accompanied by E. L. Howell, encountered something in the road. Upon examination it was found to be a six-foot alligator. The gator was soon dispatched.

The excitement this week was the capture of a negro supposed to be Eli Bookes, the Palatka murderer of Julian R. Smith. He was held in the guard house and was accompanied to Hawthorne by Marshal Baskin and B. R. Rayson having been found by the latter. They were met by the sheriff of Putnam county and the negro was discharged for lack of identification. The original is still at large with a reward of $500 upon his head.

CANDLER

As our little town has not been heard from in some time, and as we wish to have some reminder among our friends that we are still alive and on the up grade, we do not know any better way than to advertise ourselves through the Star, the best paper in the county.

We have been having candidates by the galore, all jolly and good natured, and each feeling that he is the right man in the right place.

Mr. Flanders, Mrs. J. H. Fox, Miss Georgia Houghton and Mr. and Mrs. Fort made a trip to Ocala on Tuesday.

Mr. Conogan, we are sorry to say, is in a very weak condition. He has lately sold his property to Mr. John G. Paris, of Mount Aye, Iowa. The sale was made by J. H. Fox.

The orange groves here are looking very fine. Some of the trees will yield considerable fruit.

Ocala people are passing through every week to spend a few days by beautiful Lake Weir. There is no lovelier spot in Florida than this lake, with its laughing, sparkling waters, and when its cooling breezes kiss the brow one feels calm and rested from life's trying scenes.

Mr. Edgar Fox, formerly of Candler, but now a member of the 29th regiment band in Manila, in a late letter to his parents, reports an earthquake at that place. He says theirs is the best band on the island. He sends many thanks for a copy of the Star.

Rev. Hugh Morris preached a most excellent sermon on Sunday morning. His theme was, "Evidence of Christianity." He held his audience spell bound for nearly an hour with his clear and convincing truths. Mr. Morris certainly has a bright future.
